CIVIC DEPARTMENT DAY WITH THE PALMETTO CLUB.

INTERESTING TALKS BY VARIOUS CHAIRMEN GAVE INSTRUCTIVE INFORMATION TO MEMBERS.

The Civic Department of the Palmetto Club held its annual open meeting Thursday afternoon. Dr. M. Josie Rogers, as chairman of the department, had charge of the program, the opening number of which was a piano solo by Miss Ella Willaume. Rev. A. J. Wilder, chairman of the school board, followed with a brief talk on "Practical Education," prefacing his remarks with a short summary of the efforts of the building committee to have an absolutely up-to-date new school building, especially with reference to sanitary and hygienic conditions.

Mesdames C. C. Bohannon and Montano S. Ludlow sang most acceptably vocal duets: (a) Holy Mother, Guide His Footsteps, (b) Wanderer's Night Song.

Miss Kathryn Thorp, State chairman of Civics, gave an interesting account of civic progress in other cities of Florida, showing that the smaller cities are most progressive in this necessary work, Palatka being, according to the report, at the head of the list.

Miss Rogers, as District chairman of the State Federation Health Department, told how the state work was being conducted in the campaign against contagious diseases, especially tuberculosis.

The program closed with a vocal solo by Mrs. Ludlow, "Oh! Tender Heart and True," accompanied by Miss Ellen Hughes.

The usual monthly business was held after a short intermission.

**Miss Ellen Hughes, student of Sig. Gorno, Cincinnati, and Cosmopolitan School, Chicago, also a teacher of experience, will receive pupils in piano and harmony. Call at Ridgewood Hotel. 7-11

HENRY M. FLAGLER WAS FOUR SCORE YEARS OF AGE SUNDAY

The above is an excellent likeness of Henry M. Flagler, who last Sunday celebrated his eightieth birthday at St. Augustine. He appears today as young and sprightly as he did twenty years ago, when he first came to Florida and started the building of the great system of railroad along the East Coast, which has helped make this section the Riviera of America.

MEADOW BROOK FARM NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

The newest play to make an appeal to public favor in the rural dramatic field is "Meadow-Brook Farm" by L. B. Parker. It is a pastoral story of the Cathedral Hills of New Hampshire, depicting a most vivid character of that quaint New England style that is always so welcome. W. F. Mann, the owner and producer of many successes, has given to "Meadow-Brook Farm" his special attention during the past summer and his efforts have resulted in a real production of the first magnitude in a real production of scenery and effects.

"Meadow-Brook Farm" will be seen at the Daytona Opera House next Tuesday with an excellent cast headed by Lou Streeter.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

THE WORLD IS KIN.

Little Ruth Marks of Chicago, aged three years, while playing upset a bucket of boiling water over herself. She was badly burned.

The little girl was taken to a hospital, where for awhile her life was despaired of, but she gradually improved, and finally it was decided she was strong enough to permit a skin grafting operation.

The father put an advertisement in the papers offering $3 an inch for good healthy skin.

More than fifty persons offered their cuticle.

The applicants represented every class, from the workman without a job, who needed the money to feed a hungry family, to the wealthy chairman, who offered to make the sacrifice in order to save the child's life.

Only four were taken. About an inch and a quarter of cuticle was taken from the right arm of each of the men selected, following a rigid examination by the doctors.

One of the men said he had two little sisters at home who reminded him of Ruth and that he would have gladly contributed the full amount of the skin out of pity for the child.

Another successful candidate declared he had walked four miles through the rain in his desire to be of service.

Not one of the men would accept a cent of money—not even car fare.

Well—

These occurrences are not uncommon, we are told, by hospital surgeons. An appeal for cuticle or for blood to be used for transfusion into the veins of the weak is always responded to.

And only when the person making the offering is in dire need is money accepted for the sacrifice.

The fact is—

The more you see of people and the more you think about them the more do you become amazed at the INHERENT GOODNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN.

It is a slander on the race to say that men, women and children are naturally depraved. They are not. They are NATURALLY GOOD. They may be hardened by association or surroundings, but inherently they are disposed to goodness.

And a touch of nature does not make the whole world kin. It IS kin. The occasion merely brings it out. People are not angels, by any means, but—"God's in his heaven, and all's well with the world."

"Where's this trunk going?" asked the baggage man.

"Well," answered the mild mannered passenger, "from the way you're handling it I'm inclined to change my first impression on the subject and conclude that it is going to the scrap pile."

COAL SITUATION AT CHICAGO HAS BECOME VERY SERIOUS.

SCHOOLS AND FACTORIES CLOSE RICH AND POOR SUFFERING.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8—The city is in a serious condition on account of the coal famine today. Many schools are closed and thousands of men are out of work on account of the closing of factories.

Extra workers have been put on by the Bureau of Charities to look up people who have no fuel and to provide them with quarters in the police stations, which are now already well filled. Rich and poor alike are suffering.

The railroads cannot bring in sufficient coal on account of the chaotic condition of traffic.

RETIRED ERIE LAWYER DIED THIS MORNING.

Samuel Selden Spencer, of Erie, Pa., retired lawyer, who, with his wife had been spending the winter at the Oaks, died this morning at 9:45, of apoplexy. Mr. Spencer, who is well known here, having spent five or six winters at the Oaks, contracted a cold last week, and has not been well since but was not considered dangerously ill until Friday. He leaves a wife and son, Judge Selden Spencer, of St. Louis, and daughter, Mrs. Kemper Fullerton, wife of one of the professors of Obelin College, who is on her way to Daytona. Judge Spencer has not been heard from at this writing, but is also expected to arrive, and until heard from the body will remain at Bingham & Maley's parlors. Mr. Spencer is an intimate friend of Geo. H. Ludwig and Rev. Dr. Marsh.

SUPPRESSED.

A Story That Won a Prize and Yet Was Never Published.

A number of years ago a series of prizes for the best detective story was offered by a certain well known western newspaper, and the late F. R. Burton, in collaboration with a fellow craftsman, entered the competition. Their story, the theme of which involved an ingenious method of robbing a safe in spite of the protection afforded by a time lock, was one of the five which won prizes, and the authors' portraits were duly published in the issue of the paper which announced the result of the competition. The prize money, constituting a considerable sum, was promptly paid over, but to the author's surprise, although the other four winning stories were published, that of the time lock failed to appear. After a few weeks a representative of the paper called upon Mr. Burton, explaining that the editor was anxious to know what authority he had for his story and whether it would really be possible to rob a bank after the fashion that he had set forth. With the help of a pencil and a few diagrams Mr. Burton easily proved the accuracy of the method to the apparent satisfaction of his interviewer and thereafter looked forward to a prompt appearance of the story. But a few days later the secret of the delay was revealed. A special envoy of the paper waited upon him, full of consternation and apology, and prepared to make any amends within reason, but was emphatic in announcing that it was absolutely impossible to publish the story, because after expert investigation they had become convinced that if it should appear in print it would destroy the protective power of every time lock safe in the country, and the representative of the newspaper did not take his leave until he had obtained what Mr. Burton under the circumstances easily granted—a signed agreement releasing the paper from its obligation to publish the story and solemnly pledging himself not to attempt to publish it elsewhere. Accordingly the curiosity piqued by this bit of inside history is likely never to be gratified.—Bookman.

Shopkeeper (to commercial traveler)—Can't give you an order. Quite overstocked. Traveler—Let me at least show you my samples. Shopkeeper—Spare yourself the trouble. I can't look at them. Traveler—Then will you allow me to look at them myself? It is three weeks since I have seen them.—London Penny Pictorial.

D. A. R. STRIVING FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF PARKAGE.

ABIGAIL BARTHOLOMEW CHAPTER RAISING FUNDS FOR THE BEAUTIFYING AND IMPROVING OF BEACH STREET PARKAGE.

Members of the local chapter of the D. A. R. have for some time been making individual efforts to beautify the parkage of Beach street by the planting of shrubbery, trees and flowers.

Recognizing the importance of uniformity in the work the organization is now making a united effort in this direction and for that purpose have been asking for subscriptions.

Fifty dollars was recently raised in a short time on less than two blocks of the business portion of the street and several who did not donate said they would gladly do so whenever they were assured that the parkage would be protected by a curbing or in other manner.

Seeing the necessity for this protection and in order to secure the additional subscriptions under this proviso, the Chapter now proposes to go before the City Council and ask that a curbing be put in on Beach street from Flarview avenue to Cedar street.

It is to be hoped that the city authorities will look favorably upon this work, as it is one that will not only protect the parkage, but will be of immense importance in the improvement and care of the roadway also, Beach street can not be kept in the best condition until it is properly curbed and this curbing will also add greatly to the appearance of the street.

The D. A. R. Society is engaged in a good cause, one which should have the earnest support of every citizen who has the welfare of Daytona at heart.

95th ANNIVERSARY OF BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS

AUTOMOBILE SHOW OPENS THIS EVENING

NEW YORK, Jan. 8—Following six months of active preparation, the tenth annual automobile show opens in Madison Square Garden this evening, to continue through the coming week. The exhibits this year are more numerous than ever before. The comprise a total of 323 displays, of which there are fifty-four exhibits of accessories and parts and 23 complete cars, besides 246 exhibits of motor cycle exhibits.

Joskins—I say, old boy, this is my first day at shootin'. You might tell me in confidence what people shut one eye for when they're sightin' anything. Hoskins—Oh, that's perfectly simple, my dear fellow. You see, if they were to shut both eyes they wouldn't be able to see anything.—London Pick-Me-Up.

"Have you a good hired man?" asked the city visitor.

"Have we?" repeated Uncle Joshua. "Well, that father is the best man I ever had. He hates the alarm clock so that he gets up before it goes off and starts in on the chores just so he won't hear it."—Buffalo Express.

Family Physician—The trouble with your husband, madam, is that he has overdrawn his account at the bank of vitality.

Mrs. Gayman—I felt sure he was deceiving me about something. Doctor, I give you my word I never knew he had any account there.—Chicago Tribune.
